HOUSE BILL NO. 67 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Cowen called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 67, A bill to be entitled "An Act levying and providing for the payment of a State occupation tax on those who, in this State, refine, compound, manufacture, blend or prepare gasoline or gasoline substitutes from petroleum or natural gas and sell same in intrastate commerce in this State; and levying a State occupation tax on those who make the first sale in intrastate commerce in this State of gasoline or gasoline substitute, brought into the State from outside the State which has been refined, compounded, manufactured, blended or prepared from petroleum or natural gas; requiring reports to be made, and records to be kept, and permitting inspection thereof by proper public officials, and prescribing penalties for failure to comply with the act in order to facilitate collection of such occupation taxes; providing for the interest on delinquent taxes and penalties; making disposition of the taxes after collected; providing for suits for taxes, penalties and interest and compensation of officers bringing same; defining gasoline; declaring the legislative intent as to parts of the act being held invalid; repealing the present gasoline occupation tax law; defining 'person' as used in the act, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

On motion of Mr. Cowen, the House concurred in the Senate amendments by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 86 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Quaid called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 86, A bill to be entitled "An Act making appropriations to pay the salaries of officers and employes of certain educational institutions and other expenses of maintaining and conducting them as follows, to wit: University of Texas, including the Medical Branch at Galveston, and the College of Mines and Metallurgy at El Paso; Agricultural and Mechanical College; State Experimental Stations; Prairie View Normal and Industrial College; John Tarleton Agricultural College; Grubbs Vocational College, hereafter to be known as the North Texas Junior Agricultural College; College of Industrial Arts; Texas Technological College; Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville; Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos; North Texas State Teachers College at Denton; West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon; East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce; Sul Ross State Teachers College at Alpine; Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College at Nacogdoches; South Texas State Teachers College at Kingsville; Texas School for the Blind and Texas School for the Deaf, for years beginning September 1, 1923, and ending August 31, 1925, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

Mr. Quaid moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments, and that a free conference committee be requested to adjust the differences between the two houses on the bill.

The motion prevailed.

HOUSE BILLS ON FIRST READING.

The following House bills, introduced today, were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate committees as follows:

By Mr. Quaid:

H. B. No. 118, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending the statutes relative to drugs and narcotics; making it unlawful to possess for unlawful sale, furnishing or giving away any marihuana or other drug, narcotic, preparation, derivative or preparation mentioned in Section 1 of Chapter 150, General Laws, Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter 61, General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, and making it a felony to carry on or about the person any pistol, arm or weapon mentioned in Article 475, Penal Code, while so possessing same; prescribing penalties, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Public Health.

By Mr. Burmeister:

H. B. No. 119, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating the Whitsett Independent School District in Live Oak county, Texas."

Referred to Committee on School Districts.

By Mr. Lamb:

H. B. No. 120, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 1 of Chapter 4 of the Special and Local Laws of the First Called Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature, whereby the Tehuacana School District in Limestone county is reduced in size, and providing for the annexation of the portions thereof thus removed unto adjacent common school districts, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on School Districts.

By Mr. Bonham:

H. B. No. 121, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Section 1, Chapter 65, Acts of Thirty-sixth Legislature, Second Called Session, providing for the dissolution of consolidated school districts by majority vote of the qualified voters of the district at an election held for that purpose, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on School Districts.

By Mr. Merriman:

H. B. No. 122, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 3104 so as to provide that no candidate for a State or a district office shall be required to pay not exceeding one dollar as his portion of the estimated expenses of holding the primary election at which such candidate is seeking nomination, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Privileges, Suffrage and Elections.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof and their captions had been read severally, the following enrolled bills and resolutions:

H. C. R. No. 13, Inviting Hon. Pat Harrison to address the Legislature.

H. B. No. 77, "An Act making appropriations to pay salaries of judges and the support of the Judicial Department of the State government for the two years beginning September 1, 1923, and ending August 31, 1925."

H. C. R. No. 10, Granting Judge J. R. Warren leave of absence from the State.

S. B. No. 10, "An Act making appropriations to pay miscellaneous claims against the State and authorizing payment of said miscellaneous items on the taking effect of this act, and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 9, "An Act levying and providing for the payment of a State occupation tax on the mining or production of sulphur by any method, system or manner, within this State; requiring reports to be made and records to be kept by those engaged in the business, and providing for the inspection thereof by certain public officials, their employes or representatives; prescribing penalties for the failure to comply with provisions of this act; providing for the payment of interest, penalties and costs by certain officials; fixing the venue therefor and the compensation of officials for said services; repealing House bill No. 328 passed at the Regular Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, levying an occupation tax on the production of sulphur, and declaring an emergency."

APPOINTING POET LAUREATE OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Shearer offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The members of the Thirty-eighth Legislature of Texas, as such, have led a checkered and precarious existence, having been criticized, itemized, memorialized, eulogized and, it may be, hypnotized, and have complacently at all times and rebellious at times, suffered the jibes, jeers and jabs of divers and sundry heartless and remorseless critics, whose bitter and vituperous condemnations and maledictions have made the legislative existence of a succession of jars, catastrophes and explosions, causing to such downtrodden legislators uniform and unmitigated suffering, mental anguish and despair; but

Whereas, We have one member, the Hon. E. G. LeSturgeon, who in all this turmoil and strife has maintained his habitual good humor and poise, and, more than that, has from the fountain of his good humor and his literary ability produced several poems which sing the heroic acts and deeds of the members of the Thirty-eighth Legislature; and

Whereas, This poet, our fellow member, has demonstrated his ability both as a law-maker and as a poet and has won our admiration and respect; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the Hon. E. G. LeSturgeon of Bexar county be and he is hereby appointed and constituted Poet Laureate of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, and his fellow members express the hope that he will continue his literary activities and that he will by appropriate verse continue to sing long after the Thirty-eighth Legislature has passed into memory.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. McFarlane moved the previous question on the resolution, and the main question was ordered.

Question recurring on the resolution, it was adopted.

HOUSE BILL NO. 85 ON ENGROSSMENT.

The House resumed consideration of pending business, same being House bill No. 85, making certain departmental appropriations, on its passage to engrossment, the House having under consideration the section of the bill relating to the Department of Education.

Mr. Hardin of Kaufman offered the following amendment to this section of the bill:

Amend House bill No. 85 by striking out entire appropriation for Federal vocational education.

Mr. Dodd moved to table the amendment.

Yeas and nays were demanded, and the motion to table prevailed by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 102 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 102, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing any city in the State of Texas of one hundred thousand or more population, whether organized by special law, home rule charter, or general laws of the State of Texas, to disannex unimproved territory, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Kemble offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 102, line 13, page 1, by striking out the words "one hundred thousand" and insert in lieu thereof "one hundred sixty-five thousand according to the last United States census."

Mr. LeSturgeon raised a point of order on consideration of the bill on the ground that the subject matter has not been submitted by the Governor.

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Mr. Quaid moved the previous question on the pending amendment and the bill and the main question was ordered.

Mrs. Wilmans raised a point of order on consideration of the bill on the ground that notice required in the Constitution has not been given.

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Mrs. Wilmans appealed from the ruling of the Chair, and the appeal was duly seconded.

(Speaker Seagler was called to the chair pending the appeal.)

Question—Shall the ruling of the Chair be sustained?

The House sustained the ruling of the Chair.

(Mr. Pope in the chair.)

Mr. Turner moved to reconsider the vote by which the previous question was ordered.

Mr. Quaid moved to table the motion, and the motion to table was lost.

Question then recurring on the motion to reconsider, yeas and nays were demanded.

The motion to reconsider prevailed by the following vote:

On motion of Mr. Irwin, the bill was laid on the table subject to call.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, June 9, 1923.

Hon. R. E. Seagler, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has adopted H. C. R. No. 9, authorizing and directing the Comptroller of Public Accounts to transfer the unexpended balance, amounting to $96.46 of an appropriation of $100 for contingent expenses of the State Tax Board for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1923, to the credit of the appropriation made for the same fiscal year for said board for payment of postage, telegraph, telephone and express.

Respectfully,

RICHARD BLALOCK,
Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 121 ON SECOND READING.

Mr. Finlay (present), who would vote "nay," with Mr. Edwards (absent), who would vote "yea."

The Speaker then laid House bill No. 85 before the House, on its third reading and final passage.

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Gipson offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 85, page 17, line 37, by striking out the figures "$2500" in each column, line 37, page 17, and insert in lieu thereof in each column the figures "$3000," and insert the following between lines 37 and 38, page 17: "In addition to the duties now imposed by law on said State Tax Commissioner, said State Tax Commissioner shall prepare a complete statement of the rate, source and amount and to what fund paid, all revenues of the State, and make said statement a record of his office for inspection of the members of the Legislature and recommend what changes, if any, are necessary to be made in the Constitution and laws as will enable the Legislature to pass a simplified and uniform tax bill so that all State and county and city and district taxes may be paid at one time to the county tax collector."

Mr. Moore moved the previous question on the pending amendment and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

Question first recurring on the amendment, yeas and nays were demanded.

The amendment was lost by the following vote, not receiving the necessary two-thirds vote:

Mr. Finlay (present), who would vote "nay." with Mr. Edwards (absent), who would vote "yea."

Reasons for Votes.

I vote against this bill because the previous question was voted, thus preventing amendments that should be adopted.

HARDIN of Kaufman.

I voted "no" on final passage of House bill No. 85 for the reason that the House adopted the previous question and thereby cut off amendments that I and other members desired to offer.

STIERNBERG.

SENATE BILL NO. 9 ON SECOND READING.

On motion of Mr. Quaid, by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up and have placed on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 9, A bill to be entitled "An Act making certain emergency and supplemental appropriations out of the general revenues of the State for the several institutions and departments of the State government as named herein for the balance of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1923, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House and it was read second time.

BILL ORDERED NOT PRINTED.

On motion of Mr. Quinn, House bill No. 122 was ordered not printed.

ADJOURNMENT.
